Internships & Fellowships

New Chicago Consulting. LLC

West Loop

Public Relations/Affairs, Fundraising, Research and Political Internship Programs

New Chicago Consulting, LLC seeks qualified candidates who are willing to join our team as either a public relations/affairs, fundraising, research or political intern. Interns will have a unique opportunity to work with NCC clients (elected officials, candidates for office and political or non-profit organizations), donors, and community groups.

Each of our four internship programs are for dedicated individuals who have a strong interest in the multi-faceted realms of political and public affairs and finance. Interns will gain insight into the inner workings of strategic communications, campaigns, fundraising and political affairs and will assist various duties in their day-to-day operations. This is an opportunity to work directly with senior staff members and gain valuable experience for your own career aspirations. We ask that interns make specific commitments in either a part-time program of at least 20 hours per week or a full-time program of 35 hours per week.

Those interested should submit a substantive and professional quality cover letter, resume and 2 references to Samantha or Amanda at intern@newchicagollc.com.

The Illinois Women's Institute for Leadership Training Academy (IWIL Training Academy)
Chicago
Strategic Communications and Fundraising Internship

Illinois Women's Institute for Leadership Training Academy (non-profit) seeks qualified individuals dedicated to fighting for equal representation in government. Interns will assist staff members in the day-to-day management of IWIL Training Academy, with opportunities to staff candidate training sessions and fundraisers. Responsibilities cover the areas of digital communications, PR and event/training session planning. Internship will take place at the offices of New Chicago Consulting, LLC, giving the intern a unique opportunity to experience the multi-faceted realms of political and public affairs and finance at a political consulting firm.

Those interested in an internship should email Samantha at intern@newchicagollc.com and submit a substantive and professional quality cover letter, resume and 2 references with the subject line: "IWIL Training Academy Internship."

Mike Quigley for Congress
IL-5
Outreach Internship

Congressman Quigley has spots for general interns with many responsibilities including staffing the Congressman at events, contacting voters, assisting with event set up, interacting with political figures, responding to emails, helping daily office operations, canvassing and drafting, copyediting emails and other materials.

Those interested in an internship should email Samantha or Amanda at intern@newchicagollc.com and submit a substantive and professional quality cover letter, resume and 2 references with the subject line: "Quigley for Congress Internship."

Anyone interested in volunteer opportunities should email directly with the subject line "Quigley for Congress Volunteer."*

New Chicago Consulting, LLC
West Loop
Research Fellow

New Chicago Consulting, LLC seeks qualified candidates who are willing to join our team as a part-time research fellow. The research fellowship is a unique opportunity to work directly with the Founder/Principal of the firm and gain valuable experience by filling an important research role with NCC clients (elected officials, candidates for office and political or non-profit organizations).

Primary responsibilities include data acquisition and analysis, filing requests for information with various government and non-governmental bodies, drafting memos and materials, transcribing relevant media, reviewing data garnered from public databases, examining published coverage and reports, verifying and fact checking materials for clients, and travel related to research collection.

Successful applicants will have a background relevant to the field of research, fundamental understanding of research techniques, willingness to engage in and successfully complete multiple projects at a time, a strong work ethic, comfort in a fast-paced and small office environment, and an interest in gaining valuable skills in the field of political research. Research fellows will be compensated $12 per hour and the hours/schedule will be set by mutual agreement of us and the applicant. Those interested submit a substantive and professional quality cover letter, resume and 2 references to Samantha or Amanda at intern@newchicagollc.com with the subject line "NCC Research Fellowship".
